CONCERTS IN THE PARK

The American Fork Concerts in the Park series has been a community tradition for years, and this year it will be bigger than ever.

Come hungry and enjoy some delicious food from local food trucks. They’ve got dinner and dessert taken care of.

All performances will be on Monday’s at 7 P.M. at the beautiful Quail Cove Amphitheater. For more information visit steeldaysaf.com and click on Concerts in the Park.

MERIT BADGES

MERIT BADGE SIGN-OFF
On Saturday, June 9th the Fitness Center will be hosting a Merit Badge Sign-off from 10 a.m.—Noon. Scouts trying to sign off merit badges are encouraged to come! Please bring proof of completion for requirements and a blue card from your scoutmaster. At this event scouts will meet with registered Merit Badge Counselors to discuss badge requirements/completion and to get the merit badges signed off. If you have any questions about this event, please email Mati at mmayfield@afcity.net.

MEET A CIVIC LEADER
On Thursday, June 21 the Fitness Center will be hosting a “Meet the Civic Leader” event at 6:00 p.m. in Room 1. Cub and Boy Scouts have requirements to meet with a civic leader and discuss issues facing their community. Meet the Civic Leader night at the Fitness Center gives them an opportunity to meet and ask questions.

SUMMER READING PROGRAM

June kicks off the American Fork Library's Summer Reading Program! This program is for all ages and involves prizes, activities, games and of course... books!
